Section 1 of the Building Code Act, 1992 provides that:

“construct” means to do anything in the erection, installation, extension or material alteration or repair of a building and includes the installation of a building unit fabricated or moved from elsewhere, and construction has a corresponding meaning;

“demolish” means to do anything in the removal of a building or any material part thereof, and demolition has a corresponding meaning;

Conditional Permit – Agreement – The applicant and such other persons as the Chief Building Official determines shall agree in writing with the municipality, the county or the Crown in right of Ontario to satisfy all of the requirements set out in the Building Code Act, 1992, c 23, s 8 (3), including such other conditions as the Chief Building Official considers necessary, including the provision of security for compliance with subclause (iv) of s. 8 (3) and shall also comply with Article 2 4 1.3 of the Building Code and with all of the applicable law set out therein.

Abandonment and cancellation of application – An application for a permit may be deemed to have been abandoned and cancelled six months after the date of filing, unless such application is being seriously proceeded with.
